Revivals—The Presiding Elders, to whom was committed the paper coming from the Joint Meeting of the Presiding Elders of the two Mississippi Conference, made the following report, which was adopted by a rising vote:

“Dear Fathers and Brethren: Whereas, our College of Bishops has seen fit, in their godly judgment, to issue the church a call to humiliation, prayer and earnest evangelistic efforts to stem the tides of ungodliness and sin which now run high in church and State; and,

“Whereas, We recognize the timeliness of this message and rejoice in its spiritual insight, depth and genuineness, thoroughly in accord with historic and apostolic doctrine and practice; be it “Resolved first, by the North Mississippi Conference, That we appreciate greatly this deliverance, and commit ourselves unreservedly to such type of orthodox evangelical preaching and ministry as is indicated therein.

“Resolved, second, That we recognize in our chief pastors, our ordained and we believe divinely chosen spiritual overseers, and that we rejoice in their leadership under God, as provided in the economy of Southern Methodism.

“Resolved, third, That we recognize that to us as preachers and pastors is committed the supreme responsibility for the spiritual oversight of our respective charges under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and our rights and responsibilities we would guard against aggression from any sources which tend to make of us mere cogs in an ecclesiastical machine dominated and directed by outside agencies to a degree destructive of individual initiative and intimate communion with the great Head of the church.

“Resolved, fourth, That we look with distrust and disfavor upon all plans which conspicuously fail to emphasize the fundamental doctrines which alone inspire Christian experience and faith, especially when such plans are accompanied by unsound official publications boasting even that in the coming revival ‘the ancient creeds and dogmas will not be brought out of the limbo of neglected things and set up as controlling principles,’ and that ‘there will be few tears and no shouting at all’ in the approaching Pentecost.

"Resolved, fifth, That we repudiate as anti-Christian such utterances as the above quoted from 'the Centenary Bulletin' for July, 1919, page 11, under the caption, 'The Centenary Revival,' and that we affirm our faith, evidenced by history and experience, that there are no principles which can control the consciences of men, convert sinners and bring men to God other than the ancient New Testament principles of historic orthodox Christianity expressed in the creeds of Christendom, the articles of religion and the general rules of our church. We should like to inquire when and by whom any new creeds principles or gospel have been formulated? And when and where they have been tested and found more effective in regenerating humanity than the old?

"Resolved, sixth, That we cannot co-operate with a plan plainly antagonistic to and repudiative of historic Methodism and evangelical Christianity, and we cannot approve or take part in revival efforts which effect chiefly an increase of membership. In this matter we entirely agree with the position of our Bishops. Our chief aim must be the regeneration of sinners and the edification of saints.

"Resolved, seventh, That we recommend that each presiding elder at the beginning of the new year call his preachers together for a special session of Bible study, self-examination, consecration and prayer for the enduement of power from on high, that the the spiritual life of our churches may everywhere be quickened and revival fires set ablaze throughout our Conference.

"Resolved, eighth, That revival services be held in every charge and church throughout our bounds at such seasons as may be deemed best, conducted in so far as may be practicable by the pastor, and that everywhere constantly in prayer meetings, Sunday school, preaching services, call should be made to turn men to God in this hour, wherein the world so sorely needs the wisdom and strength and pardon He alone imparts; that groups of godly people meet in classes for prayer to this end, and that the episcopal address ordered published be read by our pastors in all of our churches.

"Resolved, ninth, That these resolution be adopted by a rising vote and become the principles upon which, under God, we project our work for years to come, praying the blessings of God upon us as we labor in His name. Signed by John C. Kilgo, Bishop; Thos. H. Lipscomb, R. A. Meek T. H. Dorsey, L. M. Lipscomb, J. H. Holder, W. W. Mitchell, W. L. Duren, V. C. Curtis.

Evangelism—The Committee on Evangelism submitted Report No. 1, urging that revivals be held under the duly constituted authorities of the Church. The report was ruled out of order by the chair on the ground that was either equivalent to the report of the presiding elders just adopted, and therefore unnecessary, or contradictory to said report, and therefore conflicted with previous action.

Conference Date—J. E. Stephens read a resolution proposing a change in the time of holding the annual sessions. Consideration of this resolution was made the special order of the day for 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Hour Fixed—Bishop Kilgo announced 10:30 tomorrow as the hour for receiving the class into full connection.

Lay Activities—The hour having arrived for the consideration of Lay Activities, the Bishop called R. A. Meek to the chair and the following report was read and adopted after brief talks by several of the laymen.

LAY ACTIVITIES

It is with special pleasure that we report progress in the Laymen's movement in the North Mississippi Conference this year. For the first time since the organization of the Laymen's Movement have the laymen been presented with a program that challenged the energy and aid of every layman in the Church. The great Centenary Program opened a field where all could work without one being jealous of another, and each felt that if the victory was won there would be glory enough for all. There was such splendid success of the Centenary drive that there was indeed glory enough for all. We are pleased to quote Dr. Beauchamp in giving a review of the great success of the Centenary movement in which he says: "Co-incident with this, was the part played by the great organization of the Laymen's Missionary movement, where splendid help and interest had been back of it, and made success possible."

The Church was wise in the selection of the Centenary Secretary, Conference Director and the District Directors. These leaders all wrought well, and are due the praise and thanks of the Church. The laymen of the church have been made stronger and better; because they have been given something worthy to do, and have done it. Some writer in summing up the good coming from the results of the Centenary work says: "Above all the Church will have fifty thousand trained laymen who have come forward to bear their legitimate burdens. This result alone would compensate for all the expense and labor of the Centenary. If these laymen should raise thirty-five million dollars, and then throw it into the sea it would be the best investment the Church ever made—simply because the laymen did the thing."

This is the day of the Layman. The field representatives, the campaign directors, the Minute Men, practically all of these came from the pews. They have been given a job large enough to attract men. For once the Church has asked men accustomed to dealing in big things in business to take up a bigger thing for the Church, and they have responded amazingly well. They would have responded at any time in the past, if we had given them such a worthy task.

Hitherto the pastor has been dragged from the pulpit into the work of table-serving. In the future the laymen trained in the Centenary and thereby given a world vision will carry his own burdens and the pastor can give himself to the legitimate task of preaching Christ to the world. The ministry of our church should have been released of this table-serving long ago, and it is to be hoped that the laymen have taken upon themselves this part of the Church's work for all time to come.

In conclusion, we desire to say that it is necessary for the Laymen's Movement to keep up its present organization in order to carry out successfully the great Centenary program. To this end we urge the continued co-operation of all the pastors. The Laymen's movement is about the youngest organization of the Church and should have received more encouragement from part of our preachers than it has. No organization of the Church can live and prosper without the aid of the ministry of the Church, and unless it is worthy of their endorsement it should not live. But let none forget that our General Conference has made the Laymen's movement a department of our church organization and it is as much entitled to honor and support as any other branch of our great Church.

Respectfully submitted,

G. L. JONES, for Committee.

Offering Made—An offering was made for the relief of W. L. Graves who had the misfortune to lose his house and furnishings by fire during the week.

Temperance—The Committee on Temperance and Social Service made the following report which was read and adopted:

TEMPERANCE

Amid the epochal transitions and world-wide upheavals of the hour, no recent event means more to the economic, moral and spiritual welfare of mankind than the adoption by this Government of a prohibition amendment to our Constitution. This occurrence we think affords special grounds of gratification in this body.

1st. Of the forty-eight States of the American Union, Mississippi first ratified this amendment.

2nd This great moral movement was inaugurated by the ministry through a purely moral appeal to the conscience of men. Later, economists discerned its material benefits and politicians launched their ships upon the rising tide of public opinion. But the real birthplace of this great reform was in the courage and conscience of the ministry of God. We are grateful for this stupendous exemplification of moral leadership—a leadership embodied not in an individual man, but in the citizenship of the world's greatest nation. However, an evil whose origin is lost in the mists of time cannot be eradicated by the mere enactment of a statute. Therefore, it devolves upon our citizenship to have this law enforced, and the conscience of the nation must be kept awake by the prophets of God, lest this greatest moral experiment should lapse into tragic failure.

N. G. AUGUSTUS, for the Committee.

Supernumerary—The Bishop called Question 18—Who are supernumerary? The Committee on Conference Relations recommended and the Conference ordered that this relation be granted G. W. McLain and E. H. Rook.

Superannuated—The Bishop called Question 19—Who are superannuated? On recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations, this relation was granted to R. I. Allen, J. W. Anderson, J. W. Bell, W. J. Burt, Thos. Cameron, D. L. Cogdell, R. P. Goar, W. C. Harris, I. F. Holland, J. M. Huggin, E. Johnson, J. D. Newsum, W. J. O'Bryant, B. P. Patterson, James Porter, J. W. Price, C. N. Terry, W. D. Wendel, T. C. Wier.

Introduced—Dr. F. S. Parker, Epworth League Secretary, and J. H. Shumaker of the Methodist Benevolent Association were introduced to the Conference.

Full Connection—The hour for the order of the day having arrived, the Bishop called Question 4—Who are admitted into full connection? M. E. Scott, J. S. Duncan and J. W. Robertson were called before the bar of the Conference, addressed by the Bishop and by unanimous vote received into the traveling connection.

Epworth Leagues—The Epworth League Board made its report which was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

Recognizing the effectiveness of the Epworth League in training our young people, and appreciating the action of the General Conference in putting the Epworth League on a better footing with the other interests of the Church we appeal to all our pastors and people to rally to the support of this work.

We appreciate the co-operation of those who have made possible what has been accomplished this year. The Board asks that this Conference accept its share and plan of the Epworth League's part in the Centenary. As the Centenary movement has brought into the Church large funds, our need now, is capable, consecrated young people to give their lives in carrying out what is to be accomplished. These, for the most part, are to be furnished from the ranks of the Epworth Leagues and young people's societies. Life enlistment is the clarion call to our League and Leaguers. Our Board would urge the observance of Epworth League Anniversary Day, with an offering, to be sent direct to the Treasurer of the Board, to be used in furthering the cause. Also we request that, as far as possible, the chapters and congregations to use the first Sunday in January as "Covenant or Intercession" Day, as suggested by the General Board.

We commend, most heartily, the Epworth League Conferences, to be held during the summer and would urge that our capable young people be sent to these gatherings which are planned to inspire and enlist for larger service in the advancement of the Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

R. P. NEBLETT, Chairman.

MEMOIRS

Edmondson, Bowen Mitchell, Freeman, Thomas.

H. C. EDMONDSON

Rev. H. C. Edmondson, son of Robert and Amarilla Edmondson, was born at Pontotoc, Mississippi, March 5, 1860. He was converted in January, 1884, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was licensed to preach the same month. He was educated at Vanderbilt University, and was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference in December, 1889 at Holly Springs, Miss., having been ordained a local deacon in 1888 by Bishop Galloway and having served Huntingdon and Beulah the following year as a supply.

As a member of the North Mississippi Conference, he served the following charges: Panola Circuit, 1890; Ashland Circuit, 1891; Eagle Springs Circuit, 1892; Chester Circuit, 1902; Corinth Circuit, 1903; Blue Springs Circuit, 1904; Toccopola Circuit, 1905-6; Randolph Circuit, 1907; Slate Springs Circuit, 1908-9; Marietta Circuit, 1910; Tishomingo Circuit 1911. He was transferred to the White River Conference at the close of 1892 and served there for ten years.

At the Conference of 1911, he was granted the superannuated relation which he sustained to the time of his death, residing in Iuka, where he triumphantly passed to his eternal reward in January, 1919.

One familiar with the appointments of his Conference will note at a glance that he served his entire ministry on the hardest of circuits. He was forced to live on the most meagre of salaries, though he was born and reared in comfort and had the tastes and interests naturally belonging to one in such station. Admiration kindles at the thought of the consecration of this devout and humble man who went without complaint or question year after year to these difficult fields. His modest soul was guileless; his one ambition was to render his best service to his Lord and King. He sought not the high place of the great and the talented, but was himself great in his fidelity and loyalty to the Church and his Master.

His last illness was protracted, but he bore his sufferings with the patience of a saint and the resignation of a martyr. He well knew of his approaching end, but the great summons found him ready to go, and his ascension was peace.

May the benedictions of heaven rest on his lonely and sorrowing wife and children.

J. R. COUNTISS.

REV. J. A. BOWEN.

James Asbury Bowen, son of Randall A. and Sarah Ann Bowen, was born near Waterford, Marshall County Miss., Dec. 18, 1850. He was converted in August, 1867, under the ministry of Rev. Elias Jackson and Rev. Charles B. Harris. While many of the school buildings in his home community were destroyed by the Federal Army during the Civil War, he was fortunate in having a good neighborhood school, and in securing better advantages in a school of higher grade in Tennessee, where he enjoyed many favors at the hands of his uncle, Rev. John W. Bowen, a Baptist minister. On his return to his home, he was honored by his neighbors by being chosen teacher of their school. During several years he taught there, rendered material assistance to his own family and improved his own education.

He was licensed to preach at Asbury Church on the Holly Springs Circuit in 1872 and did much active work for four years as a local preacher. In 1876 he was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference and ordained deacon by Bishop Pierce. His first appointment was Ashland Circuit in the Holly Springs District, which he served two years. He was received into full connection at Macon, Miss. Dec. 13, 1878, and appointed to Early Grove Circuit, which he served one year. He was ordained elder by Bishop Pierce at Columbus, Miss., Dec. 19, 1880. He served Ripley and Falkner in 1879-80; Corinth Station, 1881-4; Kosciusko and Durant, 1885. At the close of this year, he was appointed Agent for Grenada College, which position he filled for two years. Later he served Greenville, Aberdeen, Macon, Water Valley, Columbus Tupelo and Winona. From Winona, he was transferred to the North Alabama Conference. He served Holmes Street Church, Huntsville, for two years and was appointed Conference Evangelist. After six months in this work, he was appointed to First Church, Ensley, to fill out the year in place of Dr. J. D. Simpson, elected President of Birmingham College. At the close of the year, he was again made Conference Evangelist and served for five years. At the close of 1915, he was transferred to the North Mississippi Conference and appointed Conference Evangelist holding this appointment to the time of his death at Tupelo, Miss., Jan. 24, 1919.

He was a member of the great Prohibition Convention in Jackson, Miss., which settled the policy for all later work done in this cause in the State, serving there with Bishop Galloway, C. H. Alexander and other distinguished men. He was highly honored by the Masonic fraternity of his State, being at one time Chaplain of the Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar. He assisted in founding and building the Mississippi Methodist Orphans' Home at Water Valley (now at Jackson), and was one of its faithful trustees until his transfer to the North Alabama Conference. He also served for a number of years as trustee of Grenada College, and was successively a member of the Sunday School Board, the Board of Missions and the Board of Education of his Conference.

As pastor, he was tireless in his efforts to seek and to save the lost. Few men made more calls at the homes of parishioners. He found the strangers and welcomed them to his church. He was a fervent Gospel preacher and was gifted with a rare power in prayer. Without such educational advantages as many of his day enjoyed he nevertheless filled the leading appointments in his Conference. His own convictions were never lukewarm—and there was always a purpose, definite and distinct in his sermons. Endowed with unction and sometimes with great power, his words won many hearts to Christ and left impressions for good as lasting as life itself. To him, the Bible was the very word of God—its statements, historical and theological, he accepted without question. He gave little attention to rules of homiletics, but came before his audience as an ambassador for Christ, beseeching men to be reconciled to God.

His pre-eminent passion was evangelism. Even while a pastor he was much used by others in revival meetings, both in his own and in adjoining States. He is said to have held meetings in ten States and to have witnessed 20,000 conversions and 12,000 additions to the Church, a record not likely surpassed by any who have labored among us.

He was genial, courteous, cheerful, optimistic. His social qualities made him an acceptable visitor in every home, and his sympathy, interest and consoling words brought cheer and comfort to many a disconsolate heart and sent it singing on its way. His fights for moral reforms left his State cleaner and richer and helped remove temptation from the paths of the weak and erring.

His last illness continued for a full year, but brought no complaints nor expressions of impatience. He was anxious, God willing, to crown his ministry, as he said, with further work. Twice during this time, he was able to attend worship by being carried in a car. His going was as the sailing of a full-freighted ship, sails set, prow turned toward the blest harbor, loaded to the water-line with the golden grain garnered from half a century of sowing.

Of his immediate family his wife, two sisters and a son, Rev. C. A. Bowen, a member of the faculty of the Woman's College of Alabama, survive him. To these we extend our deep sympathy in their great sorrow.

O. W. BRADLEY.

REV. J. H. MITCHELL.

Rev. John Hudson Mitchell, son of Rev. Wm. B. and Mrs. S. Mitchell, was born in Lafayette County, Mississippi, February 10, 1855. He received his primary education in the county schools; was converted at Abbeville, Miss., in August, 1871; was granted license to preach at Water Valley, Miss. by the quarterly conference of that charge, Rev. Amos Kendall being presiding elder. Thus at the early age of seventeen he felt the call of God to his life mission. By appointment of his presiding elder, he spent the latter part of the year 1872 as junior preacher on Grenada Circuit under Rev. Jas. M. Hampton, preacher in charge. He spent 1874 in business pursuits, endeavoring to secure funds to prosecute his studies in his high calling to preach the everlasting Gospel. In 1875 he served Greenwood Circuit, Greenwood then being a straggling village on the Yazoo river, and all the contiguous territory a pioneer field for the itinerant. Some twenty-odd years later he returned to Greenwood, then a humming, growing city and one of the strongest stations of the North Mississippi Conference, and now as before, he did a monumental work both in building up the spiritual and other needs of the church. He was instrumental in erecting one of the handsomest and amplest church buildings in the Conference and it now stands as a signal mark of his perseverance, industry and skill. At the end of his first pastorate at Greenwood, he was discontinued, at his own request, to enter Vanderbilt University. Brother Mitchell was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference at Aberdeen in 1877; was received into full connection in 1879, and ordained elder by Bishop Paine, November 20, 1881. At the Conference of 1876 he was appointed to Snow Creek Circuit, where he remained two years. Then he served the following appointments: Pine Mountain, 1879; Early Grove, 1880; Booneville and Rienzi, 1881; Iuka Station, 1882-5; Corinth Station 1886-9; Macon Station, 1890-93; Kosciusko District, 1894-97; Greenwood Station, 1898-99; Winona District, 1900-03; Greenwood Station, 1904; Aberdeen District, 1905-08; Water Valley, First Church, 1909-11; Corinth District, 1912-15; Indianola Station, 1916-17. At the close of this year his health forbade his continuing in the active work and he was superannuated and remained in this relation until his death August 10, 1919.

Brother Mitchell was a delegate to the General Conference of 1902 and an alternate in 1906.

He was an honored trustee of Grenada College for twenty years and gave to it his fullest strength and devotion. As a pastor, he was diligent, wide-awake and untiring in his love and care for all within his reach. As a man, he was manly, cultivated, warm-hearted and always approachable by any, the poor or the rich. As a Presiding Elder, he was wise, energetic and faithful, giving himself with all he had to the Master's flock and cause. He was considerate, careful, painstaking and evangelical, both in his administration and preaching. He was true and loyal to all men and above all deeply consecrated to his high calling in Christ Jesus. He was loved by all for his strong character, deep piety, generous nature, abounding human sympathies and warm heart for the smallest and weakest of God's struggling children. The wise and sainted Bishop Galloway said of him, "He is the greatest Presiding Elder in Southern Methodism." In his ministry of thirty-five years he served circuits, stations, missions, and four of the districts as Presiding Elder, and in every station of life he was true, effective, progressive; he was a prodigious worker, a strong, evangelical preacher, a wise counsellor, a loyal and diligent servant of the King.

As a friend, he was warm, cordial and true. As man, no breath of suspicion of uncleanness, insincerity or dishonor was ever whispered against his name. In 1881 he was happily married to Miss Mary Viola Cawthon of Holly Springs, Miss., In his marriage he was most wise and fortunate, for his wife was a woman of rare common sense, splendid training, high ideals, and she made him a worthy and helpful companion. Being a woman of strong mind and gifted in seeing the first and deepest things in life, she not only rose to the demands of the best but far exceeded most of her kind in the rare qualities of her mental and moral and social make-up, and thus she did more than being what many women content themselves with, a good housekeeper, a genial companion, etc., but Sister Mitchell entered into the whole realm of the larger, more intellectual activities of his calling, and she was the mightiest inspiration and strength to him in his arduous work aside from God's own truth and the power of the Holy Spirit. Of this union five children blessed their home, namely: Mrs. J. B. Wadsworth and Mrs. Ruth Gray of Winona, Miss.; Mrs. C. C. Boyd, of Louisiana; Mary Lucile, who died in childhood, and J. Hendrix who is one of the teachers in the public schools of Greenwood, Miss.

As a husband, Brother Mitchell was affectionate, kind and noble, and as a father, he was loving, true, thoughtful and careful as he could be. Brother Mitchell has gone from us, but we know where we shall find him. He lived his whole life in the light and hope and realization of the spiritual and heavenly. While his feet were here entangled with the earth, his eyes and heart and plans were yonder amid the eternal powers and responses of the soul.

Our work is here, but our peace, joy and satisfaction spring from the sources of our vision, thought, love and grip on the invisible, immeasurable, immortal centers of life.

Brother Mitchell fell on sleep peacefully and nobly after a long and strenuous life in the active itinerancy, to which he gave all the powers of his mind and soul from his youth. He spared not his strength, his time, or his life, but counted all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus his Lord.

He was faithful to every trust in life, the least details as well as the greatest. We shall miss him, for we loved him, but only let us be as true and faithful as he and we shall meet him again.

The dear Father of all our spirits and mercies make it light and full of peace for his dear bereaved wife and children who are left so lonely by his going!

"Up to the Bountiful Giver of Life God's children are gathering home!" Home! home! home!

L. M. LIPSCOMB.

REV. THOMAS G. FREEMAN.

Rev. Thomas G. Freeman, son of Rev. Alfred Freeman (a local elder in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South) was born near Cageville, Haywood county, Tennessee, January 27, 1835, and entered into his eternal rest at Grenada, Miss., August 13, 1919, being in the eighty-fifth year of his age. He was educated in the public schools of Tippah county, Mississippi and in Denmark, Tenn. Converted in 1847, he felt a divine call of the ministry in early youth and was licensed to preach in 1860; admitted on trial in the Memphis Conference in November, 1864, at Aberdeen, Miss., and ordained Deacon by Bishop Paine at the same session of the Conference. He received his elder's orders at the hands of Bishop Doggett in Water Valley, Miss., in December, 1870, at the first meeting of the newly-organized North Mississippi Conference. From the foregoing dates it will be seen that he gave fifty-nine years of his life to the Methodist ministry, having been in the local ranks for four years before joining the traveling connection, and also having been granted this relation for the years 1878, '79, '80. He was twice given a supernumerary relation for one year, and was a superannuate for the last nineteen years of his life. For thirty-one years he was in the thick of the fray as an itinerant Methodist preacher, serving hard circuits at a meager salary.

Converted in childhood, he never faltered in the faith nor slackened his hold on God to the day of his death. For him, God was a genuine reality, an ever-present, soul-cheering companion with whom he held daily communion. His religious experience was of a type too positive to permit any dalliance with doubt. Confident of his relation with God, he became sure and steadfast in all his convictions, outspoken in every good cause and ready always to combat evil of every sort. He was no "reed shaken by the wind." Soft raiment and sumptuous fare made little appeal to his sturdy soul, fired with zeal to carry the evangel of his Lord to the perishing children of men. With weakness and suffering, he was as tender as a child, as sympathetic as a woman; in the face of evil and sham, as courageous as a Crusader, as uncompromising as a soldier of Cromwell. No one ever suspected him of pruning a sermon to court popularity or to win favor. With line and plummet he sought to lay straight and true the walls of Zion.

Physically, he was of such mold as the Master had need what time Methodism was seeking the lost on frontiers and establishing the kingdom on immense circuits traversed by wretched roads. No dilettante weakling could have endured the hardships to which he was subjected in these fields. At one time he walked forty miles to an appointment. His massive frame betokened vigor in every lineament and member and the body did not belie the soul within. His virtues were too rugged to pass unnoticed. A man without guile, his life was an open book. His candor was as refreshing to those seeking truth as it was disappointing to those who would cloak unworthy schemes with the seemly garb of ministerial endorsement. His honesty was as conspicuous as his sincerity, part of the warp and woof of his nature.

His preaching was expository in type. He loved the great truths of the Bible, which he accepted as the revelation of God to men and deemed the authoritative rule of faith and conduct. He was especially fond of worship in song and none who ever heard him pour forth the praise of God in Christian hymns can forget the effect as the melody that surged in his heart burst from his lips in a volume that awakened echoes in the hills hard by the church in the vale.

He loved children and received their affection in return. Nothing seemed to give him more pleasure than to note the development and prosperity of those who grew up under his ministry. He especially rejoiced in the welfare and success of the younger ministers of his Conference, and found no envy in his heart that they enjoyed comforts and advantages resulting in large measure from the toils and sacrifices of his own generation. As a superannuate, he was regular in his attendance upon the ministry of the Word and gave support to his pastor with hearty "amens" at forceful passages in the sermon.

Brother Freeman was twice married. Sons of his first marriage are Mr. Edward Freeman, of Hazlehurst, Miss., and Rev. W. A. Freeman, an honored member of the Memphis Conference, now stationed at Brownsville, Tenn. His second wife, with their daughter, Mrs. Bertha Sanders of Charleston, Miss., survives him. After his superannuation in 1900, he made his home in Grenada, where he conducted a small grocery business and by industry and frugality managed to provide reasonable comforts for himself and his devoted, loyal and efficient wife, without whom his lot would have been sad indeed. A good man and true has gone from among us. Another ambassador for Christ has been called home. Another soldier of the Cross has received his discharge. Another faithful servant has heard his Master say, "Well done!" We shall miss him here, but hope to meet him yonder. J. R. COUNTISS.

JOHN E. THOMAS.

The Rev. John Evans Thomas, son of the Rev. Nathaniel and Mrs. Pattie Thomas, was born in Halifax county, Virginia, February 5, 1852. Soundly converted May 6, 1866, he was licensed to preach January 28, 1876. Admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference November 28, 1876, he was received into full connection and ordained Deacon at the hands of Bishop Paine at Macon, December, 1878, and ordained Elder by the same Bishop at Columbus December 19, 1880.

He served the Columbus Circuit, 1877-8; Okolona Circuit, 1879-82; Shannon Circuit, 1883-4; Batesville and Wesley, 1885-7; Grenada Station 1888-91; Oxford, 1892-5; Starkville, 1896; Greenville, 1897-1900; Greenville District, 1901; Greenwood, 1902-3; West Point, 1904; Macon 1907-9; Columbus District, 1910-13; Itta Bena, 1914-15; Amory, 1916-18; Aberdeen, where he died suddenly in the first year of a richly influential and beloved pastorate, Monday morning, Nov. 3, 1919.

Should it be said of Brother Thomas that he was the saintliest man among us, the veritable Saint John of his Conference, there would be few to oppose such a characterization; certainly no voice would be lifted to urge another name as worthier of the distinction. Holy in life, seraphic in spirit, Christly in ministry, his was an influence which constantly reminded earth of Heaven and made it easy for men to believe in a Christ whom he so nobly exemplified.

He ceased at once to labor and to live. His last sermon, declared by all who heard it to have been all but angelic was upon Heaven. His last breath was expended upon provision for the comfort of the servants of God soon to assemble at Conference. Thus he passed literally from an ecstatic contemplation of his eternal home to its abundant realization by the way of unselfish, devoted practical service, which is to say that he died as he had lived. He had long walked with God, and it was easy for his feet to turn in at God's gate. Almost surely without pain, and probably without a premonition of his impending translation, he felt the touch of God's finger and stepped within his Father's house.

The lamp of life was extinguished in its fullest flame, and he passed at once into the meridian blaze of that city whose light is the Lamb.

Many were the hardships and trials of his earlier ministry, but never once did he falter in his consecrated endeavor nor did the sweetness of his spirit abate by ever so slight a degree. Suffering much, he was never soured; often disappointed, he was never embittered. To him it was given to receive the Kingdom of Heaven as a little child. He was thoughtful and meditative, but never did his intellectual processes confuse the clearness of his soul intuitions. God was as real to him as the sun at mid-day; Heaven was to him a city four-square whose limits his fancy often surveyed until it was far more real to him than the capitals of this world, for the Bible was to him a breathing love-letter whose every syllable touched bled with eternal verities. His preaching was fervently evangelical and many were converted under its earnest pleadings, as all were touched by its gracious gentleness. Always simple, earnest and honest, he never seemed to strive for any effect but to persuade men to become reconciled to God.

Probably no preacher ever left us for the Celestial Conference whom it seemed harder for us to give up. Could all the sobs his gentle ministry has hushed break forth in bereavement now that he is gone; could all the tears his tender accents have staunchd be released to flow in streams of sorrow for his going—not all these could fittingly express our sense of mourning in the loss of one whose life among us was a perpetual benediction and an un-failing inspiration.

There is no doubt as to where he is gone. Rabelais said of religion that it was "the great Perhaps." Not so with the faith of John Evans Thomas. True in life, triumphant in death, he has entered into the joys of the Lord whom he unceasingly served and upon whom his life was so closely patterned that he could fittingly have said, "Follow me as I follow Christ." I. D. BORDERS.

Church Extension—The Board of Church Extension made the following report, which was adopted after being read:

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Methodists are always ready to join in any religious undertaking for the uplift of humanity. We would not speak lightly of the proposed League of Nations, but we are persuaded that no league of nations can bring the results desired till there shall first be a league of churches in all those countries where a faithful Christian citizenship shall worship. There can be no permanent safety in a state unless its chief ruler is a Christian supported by a Christian constituency. Unless the house is founded upon the Rock, it must fall. The church building is one mighty factor in bringing people to know God. It not only affords a place for worship, but is a silent witness for God to every passer-by. The Church Extension department of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is doing a great work in building churches and thereby helping to extend Christian influences into remote settlements in non-Christian lands.

The General Board of Church Extension reports a total income of $864,326.85 from all sources for the year ending March 31, 1919. That of the preceding year was $720,030.00. Its Loan Fund capital now amounts to $1,195,627.64.

We urge all our building committees to submit their plans to the Architectural Department of the General Board for examination before final adoption. To do so will not cost the committee anything and it may prevent serious mistakes.

Our Conference Loan Fund capital is now $3,530.34 an increase of $617.50 for the year. Of this amount $2,493.81 is subject to loan. Our treasurer reports a total collection of $12,350 for the current year. One-half of this was sent to the General Board and 10% of the remainder was added to the Loan Fund, leaving in our hands for appropriation to churches and parsonages $5,557.50.

Referred—The name of H. G. Roberts was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the supernumerary relation. V. C. Curtis was called to the chair.

Education—The Board of Education made its report, which was read and adopted after brief addresses by Robt. Selby, A. F. Watkins and J. R. Countiss.

Bishop Kilgo appeared and took the chair.

EDUCATION.

In this day when the very foundations of our civil and ecclesiastical institutions tremble with the universal movements of unrest that threaten us with world-wide chaos, there is most urgent need for trained men and women to meet these conditions and issues. But if they are to stand against the subtilities of the great apostasy, they must be trained in the school of the all-conquering Christ, and in institutions that acknowledge Him as Lord.

These are times when too much emphasis cannot be given to Christian education. The youth of our land are turning to the schoolhouse with an eagerness hitherto unknown. The schools and colleges both of church and state are full to overflowing, a situation which is both an opportunity and a challenge. Millsaps College has not dormitory room for her student body, but two wings of their dormitory—Burton Hall and Galloway Hall—are nearing completion. The enrollment there equals that of last year, even counting the enrollment in the S. A. T. C. Grenada College has filled every available room, has rented rooms for twenty-five students, and yet has been compelled to turn fifty girls away for lack of boarding facilities. We rejoice in the fact that the new dormitory now in process of construction will be ready before the close of the session.

We note with great satisfaction the rapid progress and development of Emory University, which now has six complete departments in full operation.

The report from Dr. Bennett of the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training develops the alarming fact that we admitted only about sixty-five per cent as many preachers into the traveling connection in 1918 as were received in 1910. This condition should bring the church to its knees in prayer for laborers to be thrust into the harvest.

We request both pastors and presiding elders to furnish the Secretary of education of the Conference with the names of any young men desiring to attend college as ministerial candidates but financially unable to do so. In like manner, we shall be glad to be informed of persons willing to assist such men.

We have carefully reviewed the report of Dr. Stonewall Anderson, Secretary of Education, and pledge him our hearty endorsement in carrying out the great campaign for Education as planned by the General Conference at Atlanta. This campaign will begin early in 1920 and end with a drive for $23,000,000 in the spring of 1921.

We respectfully recommend that the matter of intercollegiate athletics in our Conference schools be left entirely in charge of their respective boards of trustees and faculties.

We recommend the reappointment of J. R. Countiss as President of Grenada College and of T. M. Brownlee as Commissioner for Grenada College.

Owing to the impairment of the health of Rev. W. D. Wendel, a member of this Board, and his superannuation, we recommend that J. E. Cunningham be elected to membership in his place. We wish to express our great sympathy for Brother Wendel in his affliction.

We ask that Dr. A. F. Watkins, President of Millsaps College, be given opportunity to take a collection for the completion of the dormitory at that institution, as requested by the Board of Trustees.

J. W. WARD, Treas.

R. A. Meek was called to the chair.

Address—Dr. F. S. Parker, Epworth League Secretary, addressed the Conference in regard to the young people's work.

Bishop Kilgo took the chair.

Missions—The Board of Missions made its report, which was adopted after being amended by striking out the names of proposed representatives to attend the Interchurch World Movement to be held soon at Jackson, Miss. The report is as follows:

MISSIONS.

Your Board of Missions rejoices over the progress of missions throughout our Church. In 1917 we had the greatest financial increase in our history, aggregating from all sources $258,972 for all departments. The year 1918 surpasses this high record by a further increase of $193,465. This has shifted the balance from the debit to the credit side of the ledger.

In the year 1918 our Conference gave in Specials $1,813.26.

The Centenary—The success of the Centenary rises so far above mere human power and skill as to forbid pride or boasting. Our Conference having paid one-half of the first installment, we call upon the pastors and laymen to do their utmost to secure the other half the next month because one-tenth of all we may have goes for increasing salaries of our pastors on mission works. We recommend that next year much time should be given to our pastors and laymen in teaching the doctrine of stewardship, putting on every member campaign in behalf of missions, and in heartiest consecration and prayerful attention to conserving and collecting Centenary pledges according to adopted plan.

Inter-Church Work—In regard to the Inter-Church World Movement of North America, which has been presented for our consideration, we recommend that the relationship of the North Mississippi Conference be sympathetic and helpful as far as consistent with our denominational welfare.

We have within the bounds of our Conference fifty-five Mission charges. These charges are dependent upon the Mission Board for partial support of their pastors. Hitherto this support has been inadequate to meet the need of these preachers and their families. This Board therefore adopted a standard of $750 for unmarried preachers and $1,200 for married preachers, and hopes to attain these standards as rapidly as the Centenary and regular funds will permit.

The development of mission charges will be sought and a gradual withdrawal of aid until they become self-sustaining. With this purpose in view the Board has appointed a Committee which shall secure through the presiding elders information necessary to the classification of mission territory.

We commend the faithful and efficient service of our Conference Missionary Secretary, the Rev. B. P. Jaco, and with a view of the collection of Centenary pledges and the cultivation of the missionary spirit and the development of missionary territory, we ask for his reappointment to the same position.

If we would give aid and comfort to preachers and their families in the weak charges the Centenary pledges must be collected. If we would do our part toward satisfying the financial needs of our great Church the Centenary money must be secured.

E. G. MOHLER, for the Board.

The time was extended to hear the report of the Joint Board of Finance.

Finance—The Joint Board of Finance made the following report which was adopted after being read:

FINANCE.

Your Board begs leave to report that in spite of the fact that more money was collected this year than last on assessments for benevolences, this Board received about $600 less for Conference Claimants, due to the new method of apportionment. We have been compelled to reduce our appropriations accordingly. In view of the needs of our claimants, we ask an assessment of $12,500 for them next year.

We also recommend that a campaign be instituted to raise $265,000.00 for the North Mississippi Conference Endowment Fund and request the appointment of Rev. A. C. McCorkle as Campaign Manager. We also recommend that the first $15,000.00 collected be used as an emergency fund for distribution during 1920.

We also ask that one per cent. of the assessment for pastors and presiding elders' salaries be collected next year for the Superannuate Endowment Fund.

We recommend the following Advisory Committee to work in conjunction with the presiding elders and the Field Agent in planning and executing the campaign for endowment fund:

W. T. Reeves, Tupelo, Miss.; W. E. Stokes, Macon, Miss.; W. T. Rogers, New Albany, Miss.; R. E. Wilburn Lexington, Miss.; H. L.

Wilkinson, Shelby, Miss.; J. G. McGowen, Water Valley, Miss.; H. E. Holmes, Senatobia, Miss.; G. R. Stokely, Drew, Miss.

Chaplains—The following resolution was adopted:

J. E. CUNNINGHAM,
J. R. COUNTISS.

Christian Literature—The Board of Christian Literature made the following report, which was adopted:

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

It is our conviction that we are not using the literature of our great Church to the extent that wisdom would dictate. To have a well-equipped constituency, we must make large use both of periodicals and good, well-selected books. It is better that choice books and periodicals should be read and re-read rather than that a great mass should be skimmed over. Only in this way can Christian literature be used to the best advantage. Thus used, it will build intellectual and moral character. This is essential for both ministers and laymen.

Our church is well prepared through its Board of Managers of Christian Literature to supply the best for our people, and our current literature is of the highest order, and truly worthy of the support of this Conference.

The Methodist Review is in point of merit equal to the best of its kind and should be read by all our mature members.

The Christian Advocate had last year a circulation of only 509 in our Conference. Considering the superiority of this paper, this small circulation is much to be regretted and this condition should be speedily remedied.

The New Orleans Christian Advocate has a circulation of 7,600, 2,600 of its subscribers being in our Conference. At their recent meeting, the Publishing Committee decided to put on a campaign to make the subscription list number 10 000. We recommend that this Conference accept its quota of 3,700, including the 2,600 present subscribers and 1,100 new ones, same to be apportioned to districts as follows:

Aberdeen District	516
Columbus District	436
Corinth District	550
Durant District	588
Greenville District	450
Holly Springs District	400
Sardis District	400
Winona District	400

We ask that the district stewards apportion these to the various charges when they shall meet to make the assessments. Rev. J. H. Felts is in charge of the campaign, which is to be completed by March 15, 1920.

By agreement with the Sunday School Board, we have arranged with Rev. R. H. B. Gladney for the distribution of tracts on the history, doctrines, polity and evangelical work of Methodism.

For Sunday School literature this Conference paid last year $13,969, as against $14,558 the year before.

Resolved, That we all apply ourselves more diligently to the distribution of religious books and periodicals, and especially of the Holy Scriptures.

J. W. DORMAN, for Committee.

President Endorsed—The following paper was adopted by unanimous vote:

Whereas, Our Government, with its allies, has fought to a successful issue the greatest war of the world; and,

Whereas, Our Government has fought this war not for selfish gain but for the high ideals of truth, justice, right and the liberties of our own people and the peoples of the earth; and

Whereas, in our judgment our President has negotiated a peace which should aid Christian manhood everywhere, not considering political expediency, but the rights of man; and,

Whereas, The time has come when our Christian manhood should take a stand for good, and to the end that right should prevail throughout the world; and,

Whereas, Our President, in our judgment, under the many complex conditions, and many divergent opinions, has administered our government in a manner fair and honorable to all men everywhere;

Therefore be it resolved by the ministers and laymen of the North Mississippi Annual Conference That we endorse our great President in the stand he has taken for Christian civilization everywhere and for the freedom of the world; and we tender to him our sympathy, love, and loyalty in his great efforts for the advancement of Christian civilization and the maintenance of peace among the nations of the Earth.

Supernumerary—On recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations, the Conference voted H. G. Roberts the supernumerary relation.

Evangelism—The Committee on Evangelism made report as follows, and the report was adopted:

EVANGELISM NO. 2.

We note with deep sorrow the death of Rev. J. A. Bowen, who was a member of this body and who served as one of our Conference Evangelists. In his death we have sustained a great loss as we have had no more faithful and earnest minister of Jesus Christ than was he.

We recommend to the General Committee on Evangelism the re-appointment of Rev. W. M. McIntosh as a general evangelist for next year.

We recommend that J. H. Bell and G. A. Baker be appointed Conference Evangelists for the ensuing year.

J. W. WARD,
E. G. MOHLER,
T. M. BROWNLEE.

Spiritual Interests—The Committee on Spiritual Interests made the following report, which was read and adopted:

SPIRITUAL INTERESTS.

After carefully surveying the field and noting conditions, we feel that we cannot do better than to call your attention again to the address of our Bishops, as read at the opening of this Conference. Provision has been made for the publication of this address and for its distribution throughout the Conference. We request that it be given the most careful and prayerful consideration.

Surely the hour for a great Church-wide and nation-wide revival has struck. Let us, therefore, give the Holy Spirit the right of way, for this is the chief object of our ministry.

W. A. WILSON,
R. I. COLLINS,
S. L. POPE
W. L. STORMENT,
CARROLL VARNER,
W. R. GOUDELOCK.

Sunday Schools—The Sunday School Board made the following report, which was adopted after being read:

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The great interest committed to our hands is being carefully and prayerfully looked after. We find that the Sunday Schools are apparently making as good record in our Conference as in others, and that throughout the connection the Sunday School forces are well organized for the teaching of God's Word. Dr. Chappell, Sunday School Editor, announces that our schools have contributed through his offices this year for Syrian and Armenian Relief more than $75,000. Our own Conference schools have contributed more than $6,000 for Missionary purposes.

We call special attention to the splendid literature now being furnished by the Church. The graded courses now used in all our best schools are very much better adapted to the mind and age of the elementary pupils than other literature. We urge Pastors to see that these courses are adopted as rapidly as possible, especially for the primary and junior departments.

We make special mention of the Church School, the newest and best of publications for Pastors and Teachers, touching the questions of educational methods and principles. It is issued by our Church in connection with the M. E. Church and the Congregational Church and is worthy of the widest circulation. The publishers ask our Conference to secure 372 subscribers for this really great periodical.

Our Field Secretary, R. H. B. Gladney, has been untiring in his efforts to promote the Sunday School work. He has distributed a vast amount of literature, held institutes, preached, organized Sunday Schools, introduced various helpful plans and measures as he has gone from place to place pointing the way to a better and brighter Sunday School day. The Board has re-elected him at a salary of $2,000 and traveling expenses and respectfully ask the Presiding Bishop to reappoint him.

Mrs. Lester G. Fant, our Conference Elementary Superintendent, has wrought well, having won distinction for herself and the splendid band of women she has enlisted.

Your Board has elected Mrs. W. T. Boswell of New Albany to serve without salary as superintendent of Missionary Training, a small sum having been set aside for her expenses.

Rev. J. E. Stephens has been elected Superintendent of the Teacher Training Department without salary.

We desire to express our great appreciation of the presence and counsel of Miss Minnie E. Kennedy, Elementary Superintendent of the General Board, and we are most grateful to her for the excellent address given on the occasion of our anniversary.

Hospital and Orphanage—The Committee on Hospital and Orphans' Home made the following reports which were read and adopted:

METHODIST HOSPITAL—REPORT NO. 1.

In view of the urgent needs for greater hospital facilities for our people, recommend that the North Mississippi Conference authorize the Trustees of the Memphis Methodist Hospital to plan such a campaign as they see fit for securing the necessary funds to complete the hospital. That we accept as our apportionment the sum that they deem just.

We earnestly request of our Bishops of the hospital territory, our Pastors and Elders of this Conference to join in this campaign with such spirit that will make its success assured.

We nominate Rev. R. A. Meek, Rev. R. A. Tucker, J. H. Sherard, T. G. James, W. T. Reeves and Mrs. J. M. Wyatt as Trustees of said hospital for the ensuing year.

Signed,

J. E. STEPHENS

For Committee.

METHODIST HOSPITAL—REPORT NO. 2.

Since our last report to you as one of the four Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, owning the land and directing the erection and financing of the Methodist Hospital in Memphis, we beg to advise that a contract has been let by the Building Committee and approved by the Board of Managers involving about one-fourth of the amount of material and work that will be required to complete the first unit of the new building.

This contract embraces the putting in of the re-inforced concrete frame and floors, the excavating for the basement, the plumbing and electrical wiring, which calls for an expenditure of about $105,000.00, and is about completed. The contract for the completion of the building has not been let, but the Building Committee is working out plans to secure the material and have the work done in the cheapest and best way possible under prevailing conditions. It is estimated that it will take $350,000.00 to complete the first unit now in the course of erection which will give one hundred and fifty bed rooms. This unit, when completed, will have all the operating rooms, laboratories, scientific appliances, machinery of every kind adequate for five hundred beds, so when additions are made they will be in bed rooms and not in machinery and appliances.

Arrangement has been made with one of the strongest banks in Memphis and in the South, together with the individual members of the Board of Managers and friends of the hospital, to finance the enterprise to completion, and from this it will be observed that whatever delays or hindrances that might arise in the future in the letting of the contract for finishing the building, it will be due not in the failure to get the money, but on account of the unsettled labor conditions and the exorbitant prices for the material.

We submit the following as the financial report, giving the assets and liabilities of the Methodist Hospital on November 1 1919:

ASSETS

Hospital lot.....	$100,000.00
Amount expended on new building.....	84,757.00

We recommend that the Annual Conference composing the covenant to build the Methodist Hospital in Memphis authorize the Board of Trustees created by said Conferences to fix the time and direct the number of days during the coming Annual Conference year in which to make a special drive to secure ample subscriptions to pay off all indebtedness. We also request that authority be given to said Board of Trustees to make the apportionment of the total amount needed to the four Annual Conferences and to the Districts and charges in same upon a basis that will be equitable to them, having the right to call into counsel the Presiding Elders of each District.

For the information of the Conferences, the Board of Managers representing the Trustees of said hospital deem it advisable to pursue a plan in raising the fund similar to the one so successfully adopted and carried out by our entire Church in the recent Centenary Campaign, and that it is the opinion of the Board of Managers of said hospital that the apportionment should be made as near as possible upon the basis that the Memphis Annual Conference take one-half of the amount needed and the other three according to the proximity of the Conferences to the location of the hospital and the benefits to be derived therefrom.

We also respectfully advise that the tenure of office of each Trustee expires at the close of each Conference year, and we, therefore request that you elect six members of the Board, two of whom must be ministers, three lay-men and one lay-woman. The names of the present Trustees of the North Mississippi Annual Conference are: Rev. R. A. Meek, Rev. R. A. Tucker, Mr. John H. Sherard, Mr. M. C. Smith, Mr. W. T. Reeves and Mrs. J. M. Wyatt.

JOHN H. SHERARD,
President.

Financial Agent.

ORPHANAGE, REPORT No. 1.

We, your Committee on Hospitals and Orphanage submit the following report on the Orphanage:

We heartily commend the faithful and efficient work done during this conference year by Rev. B. F. Lewis and Mrs. S. F. Riley and their corps of helpers.

We note with pleasure that about fifty per cent of the charges of our Conference observe one Sunday in each month as Orphanage Sunday and recommend that the pastors see to it this coming year that we make it one hundred per cent, or as nearly so as possible.

We further recommend that each District make for itself an allotment or assessment, the same to be apportioned to the several charges.

We submit the names of V. C. Curtis and R. W. Sharp to fill the vacancies on the Board of Directors and ask confirmation of the election of Mrs. W. W. Scales, Jr., as the representative of the W. M. S. as a member of the Board of Directors.

J. W. ROBERTSON,
For the Committee.

ORPHANAGE REPORT, No. 2.

From every standpoint the year has been a very successful and profitable one. The health of the Home has been almost perfect. Aside from the ordinary ailments of childhood, we have had only two or three cases of serious illness during the past twelve months and no fatalities; and at the present writing there isn't a case of illness in the Home.

Our school curriculum has been raised this year to the standard of the graded school in the city of Jackson, and we are using the same books and doing the same work which is being done in the city schools, and from this time forward our pupils completing our grammar school course can be admitted into the high school in the city of Jackson without conditions. We are this year giving our children instruction in instrumental music as in the past, and have introduced some phases of industrial work having at present two classes in sewing, besides canning club and poultry organizations among our girls. We have three pupils in the high school this year, two of whom will graduate in the spring. Three of our girls are at college, two at Whitworth and one at Grenada. The expenses of these girls are being met by friends.

Our Sunday School, Epworth League and other Religious services have been regularly held and have been both pleasant and profitable. During the year, through the kindness of friends, we purchased a bus for the farm, which has not only made it possible for our boys on the farm to come to Sunday School at the Home, but from twenty-five to thirty of our boys and girls attend services in the city churches every Sunday. Several of our children have united with the church this year.

Our farm and truck patch have been very successfully cultivated this year and we are beginning to realize the fruits of our labors in these two departments of our work, and our boys are being taught to cultivate the soil and care for live stock.

In financial matters we are glad to report that a larger number of our Sunday Schools and churches and individuals have been making regular monthly contributions to the support of the home than ever before in its history. Not only has this number of contributors increased, but the generosity of these friends has been markedly manifested. In view of the exorbitant prices of clothing and provisions, which still prevail and of the fact that we are still denied free cars and rebates on freight, this has been most gratifying to your Board of Directors. As a result of this thoughtfulness on the part of our friends, we have been able to make some needed improvements on the property and met our bills promptly.

As to the Home Finding Department, we have had more applications for children than ever before, and more children have left us to go into foster homes than during any previous year in the history of this institution. We are gratified to be able to report that the requests for our children are coming to us from the first homes in the State, and the children committed to our care and who have left us are receiving every advantage, intellectual, moral and spiritual, which could be asked for them. During the year sixty children have been received into the home, and sixty-six have gone into foster homes leaving at present one hundred and seventy-five (175) children under our care.

The term of office of the following Directors expires with this session of our Conference, we ask that these vacancies be filled, viz: F. Q. Holmes and V. C. Curtis. We also ask that you confirm the election of Mrs. W. W. Scales, Jr., as the representative of the Woman's Missionary Society, as a member of the Board of Directors.

Below is our financial report:

Balance on hand January 1, 1919.....	$11,943.90
Total receipts from Jan. 1, 1919, to Nov. 1, 1919.....	33,454.87
Total	$45,398.77
Total disbursements Jan. 1 1919, to Nov. 1, 1919.....	35,005.25
Balance on hand Nov. 1, 1919.....	$10,393.51

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. SHERARD,
Chairman of Board.

Bishop Kilgo appeared and took the chair.

Memorial Home—The following paper was read and adopted:

MEMORIAL HOME

Believing that the Memorial Home located at 803 Washington Ave., New Orleans, La., for unfortunate and betrayed girls, is supplying a need that thus far has not been met by our Methodism for the scores who are each year thrust into Roman Catholic Institutions for lack of such a home. In these institutions they and their children are trained in superstition and lost to Protestantism.

Resolved Therefore, That we appoint a Committee of three to act in conjunction with the Mississippi Conference and the Louisiana Conference in the care and support of this Home.

2nd. That the Board of Missions appropriate $1,500 for the maintenance of this home during the coming year.

PARHAM WILLIAMS,
E. G. MOHLER,
S. J. HIGH.

Committee Appointed—The Bishop appointed B. P. Jaco and E. N. Broyles to carry out the provisions of the foregoing resolutions.

District Records—The Committee on District Conference Records made the following report which was read and adopted:

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

We have had before us the following records: Columbus, Corinth, Durant, Greenville and Holly Springs.

In the main these records have been correctly and neatly kept. We call attention to the Columbus record in particular as being a model worthy of special mention.

Where slight criticisms were made, slips were inserted to call attention to the errors.

R. M. EVANS,
For the Committee.

Sabbath Observance—The Committee on Sabbath Observance made the following report which was read and adopted:

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

One of the fundamental laws of God's kingdom in its incipency was "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy," "Six days shalt thou labor," is a decree from the wisdom of God. God's laborers need to work to rest. This law of necessity in Israel was written by God himself and given to Moses for the edification of his people to be observed, obeyed and taught to their children perpetually.

We do not insist upon the legalistic idea. It is the belief of your Committee that, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath." It is also their belief that "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath." Man is not to use himself therefore for the Sabbath day, but the Sabbath day is to be used by him as a day of preparation, conservation and infilling with the Holy Ghost.

Our Savior does not minimize the day in declaring it for man, but He magnifies it. The legal Sabbath oppressed; the Christian Sabbath gives spiritual life. It should be taught by parents, teachers and ministers as a great gift from God to man for rest; perpetuated by Christ for man's edification and growth in grace.

The General Rules of our Church classes its violation under the head of doing harm, "The profaning the Day of the Lord, either by doing ordinary work therein, or by buying or selling," is one of the evils mentioned, and "buying" is as much a sin as "selling" or as ordinary work.

There are many things that are means of desecration of the Lord's Day. The Methodist Church must use its influence against cold drink and ice cream parlors the open garage and repair shops, the sale of gasoline, joy riding, ball playing and public and private games which tend to hinder the worship of God and to grieve the Holy Spirit.

Therefore, let us be warned by our General Rules and, as preachers, Sunday School teachers, officials and members, grieve not the Holy Spirit by desecrating the Sabbath. This will be all the harder to do because of the liberties allowed the soldiers during the war, which has almost obliterated the last vestige of the Lord's Day. This need is proved by the small attendance upon church services in most congregations. The disregard for the Sabbath sounds an alarm at the door of the Church. Shall we attend to the alarm and remove the cause or shall we wait to report with sadness and regret its effect?

E. M. SHAW,

For the Committee.

Located—The Bishop resumed the call of Question 8, Who are located, and J. A. Poe was granted a location at his own request.

E. E. McKeithen was called to the chancel and assumed the vows of a Deacon, entering the class of the third year.

Thanks—The following resolutions of thanks were adopted by a unanimous rising vote:

Resolved, That we hereby tender our thanks to the good people of Aberdeen for their generous hospitality in opening their homes for the entertainment of the members of this Conference.

2nd, To Rev. T. H. Lipscomb, Conference Host, and to the Committee assisting him, for their kind attention in providing for our wants.
